DETAILED ACTION

Claims 102-107, 110-112, 114-115, 121-122 and 124-132 are pending in this application.

This action is in response to the applicants' amendment and reply filed on April 30, 2004.

Response to Arguments

Applicants' arguments and amendments filed on April 30, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Rejection of Claims 102-105 under 35 U.S.C. § 102(b) as anticipated by Stocker et al. is maintained for the reason given below.

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The rejection of claims under 35 U.S.C., 112, first paragraph, is hereby withdrawn in view of applicant's argument and reference to the disclosure on page 36 of the specification.

The rejection of claims under 35 U.S.C., 112, second paragraph, is hereby withdrawn in view of applicant's amendment.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claims 102-105 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being unpatentable over Stocker et al. Applicants' arguments have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicants argue that the position of the double bond in the imidazole ring is fixed and that the Stocker's compound has the nitrogen in the 5 position and compounds of the Formula I have the nitrogen of the pyridine ring in the 6 position. The double bond in the imidazole ring does not seem to be fixed because when R1 is hydrogen, the proton of one nitrogen may transfer to the other nitrogen, resulting in a compound that is a tautomer of the original compound. It is the tautomerized form of the instant compound that is anticipated by the reference compound. Because instant compounds and their tautomers can exist in equilibrium, the instant compounds are still considered to have the same chemical structure as the reference compound, that is, anticipated by the reference.

Conclusion

1. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

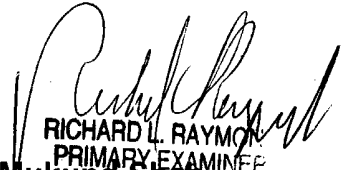

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
